

The Chapin Family

live in concert

Just wanted to shoot a note to thank you for a great Chapin Family show on Sunday 5/23/04 at the Whitaker Center in Harrisburg PA. What a great show!!! Your show last nite was a great tribute to Harry & a great presentation of the incredibly talented Chapin Family. Thanks again.

On Friday, 5/21/04 we got to see the family and friends perform together. What an extraordinary show it was! My wife and I were both so glad we got to see this performance. It was funny, interactive, impromptu, and most of all unforgettable. Father Jim and Tom's daughters brought down the house each time they performed. The songs of Harry, which at times, the audience knew better than Steve and Tom (30,000 lbs of Bananas) made all that attended feel they were part of the experience. Thank you so much for such a wonderful memory!

I saw this show at McCarter Theater in Princeton, NJ, with my sister and my mother. It was AMAZING!! I would have happily paid twice the ticket price and left feeling I had gotten my money's worth. Thank you for the wonderful gift of music.
